And that's totally normal. Students might be with us for one, two, three years, others join in Kindergarten and stay until Graduation. The same goes for our families, some stay only a couple of years, others send all of their kids to the FIS.

Teachers taught Kids were taught reading, writing, math, music, and a little history. Teachers were often invited to live with one of the families. It helped supplement their earnings, but they had to do chores. Even kids as four or five had chores. Life was harsh on the frontier. Everyone had to help to survive. My Life as a Pioneer
